Healing Touch Oriental Medicine Moves to New Location

Healing Touch Oriental Medicine is relocating December 31st! Tuesday, December 30, 2008 will be our last day in Belcher Point.

Dr. Mary and Dr. Kim have been so busy helping as many people as possible that we are bursting at the seams! We are delighted to announce that on Monday, January 5, 2009, we will be in our new location at 2555 Enterprise Road Suite 4, in Clearwater – only three minutes north of our current location.

This new space was created with you in mind -- more treatment room privacy, more space for educational workshops, administrative offices (Frank is really happy!), plenty of parking and easier access; and for your convenience, we are only one block west of the Westgate Shopping Mall in Countryside.

Be sure and mark your calendars for our Grand Opening Celebration on Saturday, January 24th! The details of this exciting event are inside. Please see the back for directions and a map to our new office.

You are not alone!

- We spend over 40 billion dollars per year on diet-related products.
- Over half of all adult Americans on a diet.
- We are still the most overweight and obese people in the world.
